

Arts and Communication

Who should consider the Arts and Communication field of study?

High school programs of study and career opportunities within the Arts and Communication field of study are particularly well suited for students who:

- √ Enjoy creative, innovative, or imaginative activities.
- √ Enjoy participating in music, visual arts, debate, or theatre.
- √ Tend to score high on Artistic scales when taking interest inventories.
- √ Are curious about the role of communication and the arts in our world.
- √ Are interested in education, employment, or activities after high school where they can use their artistic and communication talents and interests.

What available High School Programs of Study are related to this field of study?

The following available programs of study are related to this field of study area. For detailed information about these programs of study and how to build these into your High School and Beyond Plan, visit the Field of Study website at

<http://humid.edmonds.wednet.edu/index.php/sturesources/fos>

- Applied Design - Fashion and Interiors
- Audio, Video, and Film Technology
- Broadcast Production
- Culinary Arts and Services
- Drafting and Architectural Design
- English/Communications, Advanced
- Fine Arts
- Journalism and Publishing
- Law and Justice
- Music
- Plant Studies (Horticulture and Flowershop)
- Photography and Digital Design
- Sign Language Interpreter (ASL)
- Theatre Arts
- World Language

What Occupations are related to this field of study?

The following is a sample of occupations related to this field of study area. For detailed information about these and other occupations related to this field of study area, visit the WOIS Career Information System at www.wois.org

A sample of occupations requiring less than 4 years of training after High School:

Actors and Actresses
Advertising Workers
Broadcast Technicians
Computer Animators
Directors and Producers
Fashion Designers
Floral Designers
Graphic Designers
Interior Designers and Decorators
Musicians
Photographers
Radio and Television Announcers
Reporters
Specialty Teachers
Technical Illustrators
Video Production Workers
Web Specialists

A sample of occupations requiring 4 or more years of training after High School:

Actors and Actresses
Advertising Workers
Computer Animators
Fashion Designers
Directors and Producers
Display Workers
Freelance Writers
Graphic Designers
Models
Musicians
Photographers
Radio and Television Announcers
Singers and Dancers
Specialty Teachers
Technical Illustrators
Web Specialists

