Description

The Theatre Arts concentration engages those capacities most characteristically human including imagination, creativity, the ability to conceptualize and solve complex problems by stimulating thinking skills which are essential to learning. Study the arts demands and develops mental discipline, physical control and freedom of spirit. It facilitates and encourages the exchange of diverse views, reflecting and shaping world history and cultures. Acquiring the language of an art form is a sequential process based on the acquisition of developmentally appropriate knowledge and skills necessary for creating, performing, and responding to the Arts.
